Middle School Sunday School is taught by a team of two to four teachers with teaching duty shared among the teachers. Classes take place during the CE hour on Sunday mornings, from September through June. A prepared curriculum is used.

Teachers provide for the spiritual formation of the young people by developing relationships with them, modeling a Christian life and teaching them the essentials of following Christ.

Expectations of teachers:

Be an active member of Lewinsville and a regular participant in weekly worship.

Be present in class as many Sunday mornings as possible, even if you are not the lead teacher that week

Know the names and faces of all youth who participate in the class

Provide a safe discussion forum in which to wrestle with faith issues

Provide interesting, relevant and engaging classes and activities

Share your faith journey experiences
