SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY
March 3, 2019
Transfiguration of the Lord
10:00 a.m.

"I was a stranger and you welcomed me."

--MATT. 25:35

WELCOME. We're glad to gather together as a community of faith today. No matter where you are on the journey of faith, you are welcome here, to join in worship and service. All are invited to a time of refreshment and conversation immediately following worship in St. Andrews Hall (down the steps outside the sanctuary, and to the left).

If you are new to this community of faith, we rejoice in your presence with us. Remember, we're not strangers, but rather friends who journey together, following the Lord Jesus Christ.

Please turn off all cellular phones and watch alarms during worship. Please refrain from using flash photography during the worship service.

PSALM 27:1-4

The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? When evildoers assail me to devour my flesh – my adversaries and foes – they shall stumble and fall. Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war rise up against me, yet I will be confident. One thing I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after; to live in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR MISSION

BUILDING HOMES. BUILDING FRIENDSHIPS. BUILDING FAITH - Registration is now open for Summer Mission Project 2019! The week is June 24-28 (travel days the Saturday before and after) and the cost is $300 per person. All details, and the registration form, can be found on our website, smp.lewinsville.org. Is this the year YOU will join us?

CLIMATE CHANGE: AN ALTERNATE PERSPECTIVE AND POLICY IMPLICATIONS OF UNCERTAINTY – March 20, 2019, 7-9 PM Chapel. All are invited to a discussion on climate change/global warming hosted by the Faith and Public Policy Group here at Lewinsville. The meeting will be moderated by Linton Brooks and will include a discussion with John Theon, Ph.D., a member here at Lewinsville, and our guest speaker, Dr. Patrick Michaels. John worked in research on weather and climate for 33 years, the last 13 of which he headed the NASA weather and climate research program. Dr. Michaels is a climatologist with a Ph. D. in ecological climatology. He served as a research professor of environmental studies from 1980 to 2007 at U. VA., is a past president of the American Association of State Climatologists and served as a US reviewer at the International Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC). He has written and reviewed several books on the topic of climate change. Currently he is a senior fellow at the Cato Institute. The goal of the presentation will be to help us understand (but not debate) an alternate perspective on the underlying science. Because minority views in science sometimes turn out to be correct, we will then discuss whether and how uncertainty in the science should influence future policy. What things are worth doing regardless of which view is correct? What may prove to be unnecessary, but have no serious adverse effects? And how should we approach the most difficult issues, especially those with significant social implications? Our objective will be to illuminate how those of different perspectives can work together. Come join us in this exploration.

CONGRATULATIONS, LPC, WE'RE OFFICIALLY AN EARTH CARE CONGREGATION! We learned this week that our application has been approved by PC(USA). Many thanks to all who worked to help us meet the requirements. Watch for news about earth care at LPC and how you can be involved as we live into our commitment to be good stewards of God's creation.

LENTEN CREATION CARE CALENDAR - "Because the world can change a lot in 40 days." The LPC Earth Care team is providing for our daily reflection a Lenten Creation Care Calendar produced for Northern Virginia congregations by Interfaith Power & Light and Faith Alliance for Climate Solutions. You are invited to pick up a copy from the information table outside the church office. The calendar is also accessible from the LPC website. Along with the LPC Lenten Devotional Booklet, the calendar can serve as a helpful guide for contemplation, prayer and action. As stated on the calendar: "Lent is a time for prayer, fasting, and more intentional sharing. Again this year, our church is joining with many others in heeding the call to be stewards of God's Creation throughout this season. May this calendar remind us to be more mindful of the ways that our daily habits impact both "our common home" and all those with whom we share it. On behalf of future generations and all living in poverty – those most harmed by our damaged climate – may we answer God's call to be faithful stewards, speaking out for Creation care."

OPPORTUNITIES FOR EDUCATION

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CLASSES – Classes starting March 10

Earth Care: A Call for Faithful Stewardship of God's Creation – Led by Susan Bartram and Maia Foster in the Chapel. LPC expects to receive certification soon by PC(USA) as an Earth Care Congregation. This is an excellent time to contemplate why we, as Christians, should care for the earth and how we can move forward as an Earth Care Congregation. The Bible tells us that Creation – our natural world – is a divine thing. God saw all that God had made and it was inherently good. Our faith urges us to act as stewards of God's creation: defending and healing it while working to assure justice for both the natural world and humanity. In this four-week module, we discuss both the theological basis for "Earth Care" and concrete ways in which we can serve as stewards for the Earth in our daily lives. March 10 – God calls us to care for creation.

Short Stories of Jesus – Led by Rev. Dan Thomas in the Library. Jesus was a master storyteller. He specialized in short stories we call parables to often convey his message. But how did Jesus' Jewish audiences hear, understand and respond to his parables? Can such ancient Jewish insights and understanding shed light on how we may faithfully apply the messages of these parables to our lives today? Amy Jill Levins, a Jewish scholar who is both a professor of Jewish Studies and the New Testament at Vanderbilt Divinity School addresses these questions in her DVD series, "Short Stoics of Jesus: the Enigmatic Parables of a Controversial Rabbi." March 10: Lost Sheep, Lost Coin, Lost Son.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR FELLOWSHIP

LPC SINGLE SENIORS - are invited to the next fellowship lunch, Friday, March 8, in the Chapel beginning at 11:30 am. Please bring $5 to cover a simple lunch. We will be privileged to be joined by Allison Lineberger, LPC Director of Christian Education, who will share with us her life story and the evolution of her creative imagination and talents for Christian education. For further information and to RSVP, contact Lois Dokken (manpadokken@aol.com / 703 789-0617) or Wendy Maiwurm (wmaiwurm@gmail.com / 703 759-6705).

SECOND SATURDAY SET - will be at Creative Cauldron on March 9 enjoying 'Thunder Knocking on the Door.' Contact Laury Bender (benderl1@verizon.net) or Ruth Riggins (ruriggins@aol.com) for the $20 group rate tickets. Show time 7:30. Theater is at 410 S Maple Ave in Falls Church. Free parking in garage. Anyone interested in pre-theater fun can meet at 5:30 at Pizzeria Orso (rated best pizza in Falls Church 2018), 400 Maple Ave. Newcomers always welcome at SSS events.

“Always Out in Front”

A trail blazer leads others down a path he or she has opened where no one has tread before to a destination no one has seen before.

After the Civil War, faithful remnants of our church rebuilt their chapel in the woods, and blazed a path into the countryside where they established three new churches. Through hard times and wide swings in membership, the faithful of Lewinsville persisted, confident of God’s great plan for Lewinsville. Who could imagine that God would lead them to be instrumental in the establishment of two retirement residences in McLean? And in 2019, more than fifty mission programs are supported by these modern trail blazers.

Lewinsville’s capital campaign brings with it a new exercise of faith because it requires us to follow the call of God, the ultimate trail blazer. As Pastor Scott has said, “God is always out in front, pushing ahead, setting things in motion to do something new.” And so, let us go fearlessly into the future, ready to embrace the new ministries and missions to which God is leading us. Our redesigning and repurposing of Heritage Hall prepares us to blaze yet another path for those who follow.

“Behold, I will do a new thing; now shall it spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.” (Isaiah 43:19)

The Trail Blazer Capital Campaign continues its 3-year pledge campaign through June 1, 2019. Members are encouraged to return their pledge cards by May 31.
