YEARLY SPECIAL EVENTS

THE SALZMAN LECTURE SERIES

JAN 19, 2020

This lecture series was established in 1998 to honor the memory of Lewinsville elder and outstanding Presbyterian layman, Howard Salzman. The annual fall or winter lecture is an opportunity for reflection on three areas central to Howard's own ministry: public affairs, global missions, and Christian education.

January 19, 2020 Lewinsville welcomes Rev. Ruth Everhart, speaking about her book, The #MeToo Reckoning.

The Salzman Lecture is held in the Sanctuary at 7:00 p.m., preceded by a time of refreshments and conversation in St. Andrews Hall beginning at 6:30 p.m.

THE LENTEN STUDIES

MARCH 29-31, 2020

This is a series of four lectures presented during the season of Lent by a professor from one of the various theological seminaries. The topics alternate each year between the New Testament and the Old Testament. At times, the Lenten Study topic followed a Biblical Theme highlighted throughout the Bible.

The Lenten Study in the Spring of 2020 will be held Sunday, March 29-Tuesday, March 31 in Fellowship Hall.

The Lenten Study Schedule for 2020:

Sunday, March 29 9:45-10:45 a.m. Lecture #1

Sunday, March 29 6:30-8:00 p.m. Lecture #2

(The Sunday evening lecture is preceded by a time of refreshment and conversation beginning at 6:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall).

Monday, March 30 7:30-9:00 p.m. Lecture #3

Tuesday, March 31 7:30-9:00 p.m. Lecture #4

(Monday and Tuesday lectures are preceded by a time of refreshment and conversation beginning at 7:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall).

The 2020 Lenten speaker will be Dr. Carlos Cardoza-Orlandi speaking about the Book of Acts.

New this year is a separate track of classes for adults that links their participation with the children and youth of the church. Every Sunday the Messy Church program begins with all ages together in Fellowship Hall at 9:30 a.m. for a joint opening.

Following the opening at 9:45 a.m. the adults will proceed to room 25A (at the end of the Choir Room hallway) for their class and discussions of the topics that are loosely linked to the topics and themes that the children will be studying.

This track of classes is particularly targeted to Young Adults, Millennials, and parents, but all adults are welcomed and encouraged to attend if they wish.

For more information about Messy Church, please visit our website at www.lewinsville.org or pick up a brochure from the Church information board outside the church office.
