SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

April 10, 2022

Palm/Passion Sunday

11:00 a.m.

WELCOME. We're glad to gather together as a community of faith today. No matter where you are on the journey of faith, you are welcome here, to join in worship and service. All are invited to a time of refreshment and conversation immediately following worship in St. Andrews Hall (down the steps outside the sanctuary, and to the left).

In order to provide a safe, loving, and welcoming environment for our youngest, unvaccinated congregants, as well as immune-compromised congregants, we ask that you wear a mask while inside the sanctuary for a service. Thank you so much for your cooperation.

Please turn off all cellular phones and watch alarms during worship. Please refrain from using flash photography during the worship service.

Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna!

Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David!

Peace in heaven,

and glory in the highest heaven! Hosanna!"

CALL TO CONFESSION

Silence

O God, we sing and praise you with gladness when we are among others who praise you, too. But in times of stress, we can seek scapegoats to be targets for our anger. We can betray those we love and who have loved us, and we can turn against you – too busy to seek you, too selfish to obey you. Your mercy and compassion are without bounds, O God, for you forgive us again and again. You restore us to a right spirit and bring us together to worship you again. God of steadfast love, forgive us for our sin, and teach us how to be steadfast like you. Through Jesus Christ we pray, Amen.

SCRIPTURE Luke 22:63-23:33 NT p. 88

"Now the men who were holding Jesus began to mock him and beat him; they also blindfolded him and kept asking him,

"Prophecy! Who is it that struck you?"

"...When day came, the assembly of the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, gathered together, and they brought him to their council. They said,

"If you are the Messiah, tell us."

"... But from now on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."

All of them said,

“Are you, then, the Son of God?”

He said to them, “You say that I am.”

“What further testimony do we need? We have heard it ourselves from his own lips!”

Then the assembly rose as a body and brought Jesus before Pilate. They began to accuse him, saying,

“We found this man perverting our nation, forbidding us to pay taxes to the emperor, and saying that he himself is the Messiah, a king.”

“...Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, “I find no basis for an accusation against this man.” But they were insistent and said,

“He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Judea, from Galilee where he began even to this place.”

“...I will therefore have him flogged and release him.”

Then they all shouted out together,

“Away with this fellow! Release Barabbas for us!”

(This was a man who had been put in prison for an insurrection that had taken place in the city, and for murder). Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again; but they kept shouting,

“Crucify, crucify him!”

ECO-PALM SUNDAY

To celebrate Palm Sunday, our congregation partnered with the Presbyterian Hunger Program to use Eco-Palms – branches truly worthy of celebration. Usually palms are harvested in rainforests that are critical habitats for migrating birds. The more fronds harvesters cut, the more income they generate, which results in over-harvesting, and threatens the rainforest. Middlemen transport the palms out of communities for processing where more than half of the palms are discarded because of poor quality.

Eco-Palm harvesters, however, gather only quality palm fronds in a way that allows the plant to keep growing. The communities process and package the palms instead of selling to middlemen, allowing them to capture more of the profits. With this money, impoverished harvesters are able to buy shoes and school uniforms for their children and can pay for basic healthcare.

These jobs also mean youth stay in their communities instead of migrating for work.

In addition, five cents of every Eco-Palm sold for Palm Sunday directly funds projects that improve the lives of all community members. This money provides scholarships for students, pays a teacher's salary and supports elderly members of the community.

From the 175th Anniversary Notebook - If you take the stairs down to Fellowship Hall, you will pass the cornerstone, laid in 1956, for a new sanctuary to accommodate the growing congregation. Few who pass the cornerstone today are aware that deep inside, a sealed copper box rests, holding several pieces of memorabilia that commemorate the day Elder Clemons Storm laid it. The copper box holds a large 1846 penny (founding year of the original church), $1.10 in new 1956 coins (representing the church's 110th year), a picture of the previous church cut from plate, a copy of Rev. Franklin Gillespie's church history, the most recent annual report, a list of members from 1852 (copied from the 1852 Friendship Quilt), and a 1956 Yearbook.

175 Years! A Shared Journey of Faith – 1846-2021

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR THE WEEK OF APRIL 10, 2022

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING – is an annual special offering that extends God's love to those in need around the world. Programs supported through this offering help to provide access to clean water, sustainable food sources and education. One Great Hour of Sharing provides initial response services through ongoing community support to those affected by disaster and oppression. In Peter 4:10, we are charged with: "As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace". Together with One Great Hour of Sharing, we can answer that call to raise our neighbors up and surround them in God's grace and love.

We will receive funds for the 2022 One Great Hour of Sharing through Easter Sunday, April 17th. CLICK HERE to donate online through the Lewinsville website. If you prefer, you may also mail a check to the church office, or use the One Great Hour of Sharing envelope in the pew rack. Please annotate that it's for the One Great Hour of Sharing offering. We appreciate your support, as will the deserving recipients.

We are looking forward to decorating the sanctuary and narthex for Easter and invite you to contribute to our Easter Decoration Fund this year by filling out the form below and put it in the offering plate, return it to the church office, or on the web page, www.lewinsville.org.
