

HIGHLAND MUSIC PRESS

Lewinsville's Music News

"The one who sings, prays twice." – St. Augustine

October 1st, 2023

UPCOMING ANTHEMS

10/1 Baba Yetu by Christopher Tin (CC), In Meeting We Are Blessed by Troy Robertson (CC)

10/8 Ev'ry Time I Feel the Spirit by William Dawson (CC), Gracious Spirit Dwell With Me by K. Lee Scott (LC)

10/16 Veni Creator Spiritus by Tomas Luis de Victoria (Cantorum)

10/22 This Little Light of Mine by Allan Robert Petker (CB), Praise to the Lord the Almighty by Kevin McChesney (CB), Junior Choristers

10/29 CC in the congregation! Hymn Sing

BIRTHDAYS!!!

5 - Sally McKeown

6 - Mike Deese

8 - Choir emeritus, Doug Colley

11 - Scott Bartram

19 - LeeLee Hunter

25 - Toni Harrington

UPCOMING SPECIAL EVENTS

World Communion Sunday with World Percussionist, Sunday, October 1st, 11:00 am

The first Sunday in October is designated as World Communion Sunday, which celebrates our oneness in Christ with all our brothers and sisters around the world. Lewinsville's music will share music from around the globe. A world percussionist will play the West African Djembe to help lead us in worship.

Taizé Contemplative Worship Service, Sunday, October 1st at 7:00 pm

Lewinsville is 'Sent from the Heart of God' to pray, worship, and reflect. Join us for an evening of candle-lit Taizé worship.

Anniversary Sunday Trumpets - Sunday, October 15th, 11:00 am

Established in 1846, Lewinsville celebrates its 177th anniversary this Fall! To ring in the festive occasion, with a gift from Lewinsville's Music Fund's, worship will be enriched with two trumpets.

Founded in 1987, Lewinsville's Music Fund strives to enhance and strengthen music ministry at Lewinsville through significant instrumental expenses, growth and improvements to the music program, and special music events.

Vocal Workshop with Dr. Byron Jones, October 19 at 7:30 pm

Lewinsville's Adult and Youth choirs will work with Shenandoah Conservatory Professor of Voice, and former Lewinsville section leader, Byron Jones on tone production, breath control, and vocal technique.

Bachtoberfest! Sunday, October 22nd at 5:00 pm

Lewinsville will be hosting a series of three Bach performances to celebrate "Bach"tober! A 'D-Minor' Spooktacular, there will be three short concerts followed by a reception of German Sweets. The Vienna Vintner has paired four wines appropriate for the concert.

Dr. Domonic Muzzi, U.S. Marine's "President's Own" Pianist, will perform Bach's D Minor Fugue and D

Major Toccata on Lewinsville's Steinway B. Juilliard trained, Adrienne Hyde will perform Bach's Cello Suite No. 2 in D Minor. John Nothafft will perform Bach's famous Toccata and Fugue in D minor on Lewinsville's pipe organ.

Reformation Sunday Bagpipes, Sunday October 29th, 11:00 am

On Reformation Sunday we remember our faith's origins, story, and why it matters today. To celebrate Lewinsville Presbyterian's Scottish heritage, worship will include Highland Bagpipes. Wear red or your finest tartan :).

All Saints Day Worship 11/5, 11:00 am

Lewinsville's Chancel Choir will perform choral works with cello and violin.

All Saints Day Remembrance, 11/5, 4:00 pm

Lewinsville Presbyterian Church will host an afternoon of Remembrance on All Saints Sunday, November 6th. A harp and violin will perform in the sanctuary from 4:00-5:00 p.m.

Holy Happy Hour! Wednesday 11/15 at 6:15 pm
George Winston Celebration

To celebrate the Harvest season, John Nothafft will perform piano works of George Winston in honor of his recent passing.

"You're not what we had in mind when we advertised for a new organist."

RECENT NEWS

Summer Serenades

Lewinsville hosted three concerts in August to 'escape the swamp!' The U.S. Army Strings, Dr. LeeLee Hunter, and the Lewinsville Players performed.

Lewinsville Follies

Lewinsville's congregation shared it's glitz and glamorous in a tribute to 'Oscar and Tony!' for the Summer Follies!

Giacomo's Lewinsville debut in 'Somewhere Over the Rainbow'