SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

March 31, 2024

Easter Sunday

9:00 and 11:00 a.m.

"JOURNEY INTO THE HEART OF GOD"

Welcome to Easter Worship at Lewinsville Presbyterian

Easter morning is a celebration of life over death, light over darkness, hope over fear. Because Jesus rises from the dead, we are never alone in whatever feels like a dark tomb in our own lives or in the life of the world. In whatever heaviness you may carry this morning, from your own situation or the many places of suffering in the world, know that, in and through the promises of Good Friday and Easter, Jesus promises to be with us always. We can share with him our worries and fears, and we can receive the comfort and courage of knowing he walks with us in everything. This is the Good News that the Lewinsville Church community finds and shares together in worship and music ministry, Christian education classes for all ages, small groups, mission and service activities, and church wide events for fun and connection.

There are many ways for you to participate in the life of this congregation. We have programming for all ages - from the youngest to the oldest. Children, youth, young adults, parents, and grandparents, singles and families, there is a group for you to connect with! If you are interested in learning more you can visit our website at Lewinsville.org or reach out to one of our pastors who would love to connect you with worship and music, service opportunities, education programs, small groups and more. We hope that today's Easter worship builds your faith and brings you hope, as we affirm that we are never alone in anything, because Jesus is risen, he has risen indeed!

Happy Easter!

There in God's Garden

GG 226

SHADES MOUNTAIN

1. There in God's garden stands the Tree of wisdom,
whose leaves hold forth the healing of the nations.
Tree of all knowledge, Tree of all compassion,
Tree of all beauty.
2. Its name is Jesus, name that says, 'Our Saviour!'
There on its branches see the scars of suffering;
see where the tendrils of our human selfhood
feed on its life-blood.
3. Thorns not its own are tangled in its foliage;
our greed has starved it; our despise has choked it.
Yet look, it lives! Its grief has not destroyed it,
nor fire consumed it.

Upper Voices / Sopranos

Lower Voices / Baritones

Choir

4. *See how its branches reach to us in welcome;
hear what the voice says, 'Come to me, ye weary!
Give me your sickness, give me all your sorrow.
I will give blessing.'*
5. This is my ending; this my resurrection;
into your hands, Lord, I commit my spirit.
This have I searched for; now I can possess it.
This ground is holy!
6. All heaven is singing, 'Thanks to Christ, whose Passion offers in mercy healing, strength and pardon.
All men and nations, take it, take it freely!'
Amen! My Master!

in which we stand, and by which we are saved, if we hold it fast:
that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures,
that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day,
and that he appeared first to the women,
then to Peter, and to the Twelve, and then to many faithful witnesses.

JUDAS MACCABEUS

1. Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son;
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.
Angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away,
kept the folded grave clothes where thy body lay.

Refrain:

Endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.

2. Lo! Jesus meets us, risen, from the tomb;
lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom.
Let the church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
for the Lord now liveth; death hath lost its sting.

Refrain

3. No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of life!
Life is naught without thee; aid us in our strife.
Make us more than conquerors, through thy deathless love;
bring us safe through Jordan to thy home above.

Refrain

* PRAYER AFTER THE SUPPER

God of glory, You have fed us with these holy mysteries.
We rejoice that the grave could not hold your Son, that he has conquered death, and is risen to rule over all powers of this earth.
He summons us into new life, to follow him with joy and gladness.
By your Spirit, set our feet in Christ's holy way, that our lives may be signs of his life, and all we have may show forth his love.
Praise be to you, our God, forever and ever. Alleluia! Amen.

David Conte (b. 1955) is the composer of over one hundred and fifty works. He lived and worked with Aaron Copland having received a Fulbright Fellowship for study with Copland's teacher Nadia Boulanger in Paris. He is Professor and Chair of the Composition Department at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. He has received the Raymond Brock commission from the American Choral Directors Association, one of the nation's highest honors in choral music. He is the American Guild of Organists 'Distinguished Composer of the Year' for 2024. Conte is a significant LGBTQ+ composer and leading compositional voice in America.

"Concert Suite" for Brass Quintet and organ was commissioned by the Donald Sinclair Sutherland Music Ministries Endowment Fund, Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church, Bethesda, Maryland. The present second and third movements were premiered on February 5th, 2011, at the Peabody Conservatory of Music, with organist Donald Sutherland and the C Street Brass Quintet: The first movement Prelude was added in 2023, commissioned by Lewinsville Presbyterian Church, McLean, Virginia, John Nothaft, Organist and Director of Music Ministries, in loving memory of Helen Martin. The complete three-movement suite was premiered on March 31st, 2024, at Lewinsville Presbyterian Church.

The first movement "Prelude" begins with a fluttering quasi-birdsong motif in the organ, accompanied by a chorale texture in the brass, which is interspersed with a chant-like motive in the trombone. The recitative character of the music steadily grows to stately and declamatory music at the piece's climax.

The second movement "Ostinato" is a Passacaglia in F minor built on a three-measure bass line first stated in the organ pedal which includes all twelve tones of the chromatic scale. The mood of the movement is predominantly solemn and serious, though there is a recurring contrasting section based on a more lyrical, expressive theme. The variations on the ground bass become progressively more rhythmically animated, leading to a climax featuring the second melodic idea. The work ends solemnly.

The third movement, entitled "Fanfare and Scherzo" opens majestically and is built on a series of imitative entries in the brass with flourishes in the organ; this texture is reversed as the phrases unfold in this opening section. This gives way to a brief lyrical transition, leading to a sudden change of tempo to the Scherzo, which is an energetic and graceful Allegro dominated by fleeting triplets in all instruments. After rising to a climax, the opening music returns in a more rhythmically active texture, concluding with a brief return to the Scherzo music.

CHRIST IS RISEN, HE IS RISEN INDEED! At the dawn of the first Easter, an angel of the Lord descended from Heaven, stood by the empty tomb, and proclaimed, "He has been raised from the dead." As Easter breaks through, ending the season of Lent, the purple clouds of morning give way to the sun, symbolizing the light of the world.

In John 8:12, Jesus declared, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life." Sunrise encompasses both the purple of Lent and the white of Easter, symbolizing Christ's triumph over death.

Alleluia! Praise the Lord for Christ's victory over death. The painting of the Cross, representing Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection, incorporates many Easter symbols. The Madonna Lilies, native to Israel and the Middle East since ancient times, symbolize the Trinity: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, all fully God. In the background, lilies of the field and budding trees signify new life, while the purple clouds echo the dawn of Easter morning.

These beautiful banners, crafted by Michelle Witt Gottke for Easter 2024, serve as a reminder of the joyous resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.v

EASTER SEASON SERMON SERIES: “LAMENT AS AN EASTER ACT OF HOPE” During the last three weeks of April, we will have a 3-week sermon series on the biblical practice of lament. Lament is the practice of sharing our grief, our hurt, our complaints with God, in the confidence and hope that God will hear us and that our prayers will make a difference, urging God to bring about a change in our circumstances. Lament is a way of saying that the promises of God – promises of well-being, of shalom, of justice, of wholeness – have not yet been realized. We are urging God to make good on God’s promises.

It is precisely because of our convictions about the resurrection that we find the confidence to take our concerns and our hurts to God in prayer. We join our biblical ancestors in taking our concerns directly to God, praying our way through our hurt, and drawing closer to God in the process.

WELCOME TO LEWINSVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH! We are delighted to welcome all newcomers to our church family! At Lewinsville Presbyterian Church, we are claimed by God in Jesus Christ, called to live as a community of faith, and sent to participate in the unfolding of God’s kingdom on earth.
