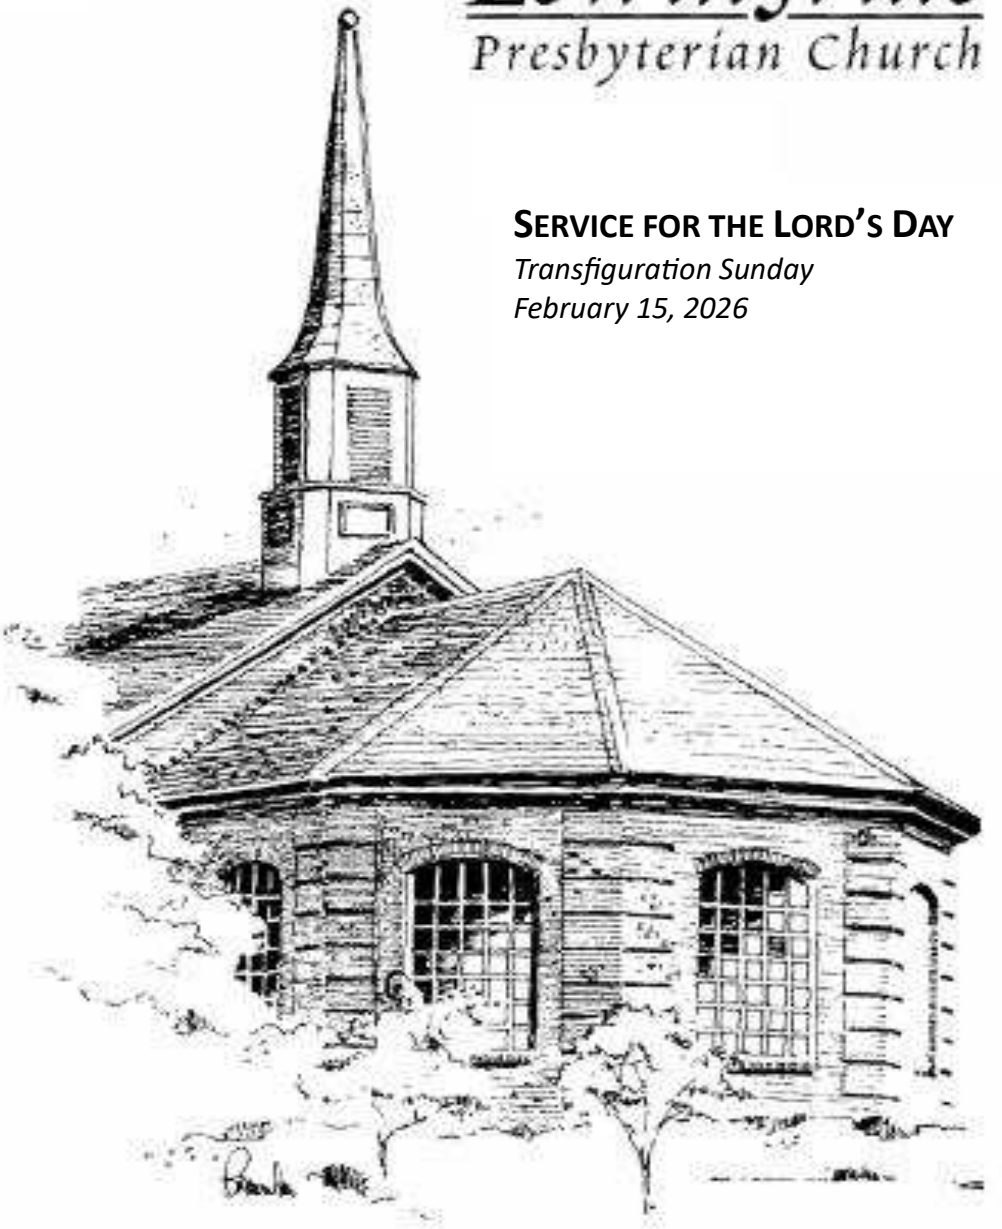
SERVICE FOR THE LORD'S DAY

Transfiguration Sunday
February 15, 2026



ABIDING. PRUNING. BEARING.

Welcome to worship at Lewinsville Presbyterian Church! We are so glad you have joined us, and we hope that worship will strengthen, comfort, challenge, and inspire you in your own journey of faith.

As individuals and a congregation, we want to bear fruit for the kingdom of God.

"Bearing fruit" is different from being successful, from impressing other people, from making ourselves feel good, from having people like us, and other tempting goals that we might be inclined to aim at.

"Bearing fruit" is about allowing God to grow something through us. Things like - community, mercy, faithfulness, compassion, justice, hospitality, trust.

In John 15:2 Jesus teaches us, "Every branch that bears fruit my Father prunes so that it will bear more fruit."

"Bearing fruit" involves intentional and attentive cultivation. Gardeners are well aware that one must prune a vine, in order for it to bear fruit well. There may be things that have accumulated in our lives, as individuals and as a congregation, that are no longer giving life, but to which we may have grown accustomed and comfortable. We may need to prune those things together. This pruning is always for the sake of bearing more fruit.

Worship is a central activity in which we participate in God's mission of bearing fruit for the world. God's loving grace is poured out upon all people, from the youngest among us to the older. We are delighted to welcome children of all ages to worship:

- There are pillows available in the narthex to make the pews more comfortable.
- There are worship bags with activities for young children.
- Nursery care is available downstairs for our very youngest children.
- Hearing Assistance devices are available from the ushers or the audio/video station at the rear of the sanctuary.
- Enlarged-print Glory to God hymnals are available from the ushers.

During the coming year, we hope that your participation and involvement in the mission and ministry of Lewinsville will help you to bear fruit in your life!

GATHERING

PRELUDE Second Line Procession

WELCOME

 CALL TO WORSHIP

We gather as God's people, who have come to listen for God's voice.

God has invited us to this place; we bring our hopes, our dreams, our yearnings.

We gather as God's people – God's children of the new covenant of hope and promise.

We boldly enter into the presence of God, hoping to be transformed into new people.

We gather as God's people, all of our fears melting away in the gracious heart of God.

We come to share in the freedom of the Holy Spirit; we come to praise God's holy name! Let us worship God!

* HYMN This Little Light of Mine

(sung twice) (Joyful Noise and Parents sing first verse as introduction)

This little light of mine
I'm going to let it shine
Oh, this little light of mine
I'm going to let it shine (Hallelujah!)
This little light of mine
I'm going to let it shine
Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine

Ev'ry where I go
I'm going to let it shine
Oh, ev'ry where I go
I'm going to let it shine (Hallelujah!)
Ev'ry where I go
I'm going to let it shine
Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine

Hide it under a bushel? No!
I'm going to let it shine
Hide it under a bushel? No!
I'm going to let it shine (Hallelujah!)
Hide it under a bushel? No!
I'm going to let it shine
Let it shine, let it shine, let it shine

CALL TO CONFESSION

Silence for personal confession

Holy God, your Word shows us the way of righteousness,
but we so easily ignore your commandments.
We have not provided for the poor, nor have we supported the weak.
We have not been truthful in our daily business;
we have been unjust in our quick judgment of others.
We have sought vengeance against our enemies, and we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
Forgive us and move us to sincere repentance.
By the power of your Spirit, free us to live as your faithful people,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

RESPONSE Kyrie from 'Mass in Blue' Will Todd

* The Peace

The peace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
And also, with you.

Greet those around you, saying "Peace be with you" or "The Peace of Christ." If you prefer not to shake hands in greeting while passing the Peace of Christ, you may choose to make eye contact and greet others in another personal way.

* AFFIRMATION OF FAITH from the PC(USA) Book of Order F-1.0404

In Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all creation, the Church seeks a new openness to God's mission in the world. In Christ, the triune God tends the least among us, suffers the curse of human sinfulness, raises up a new humanity, and promises a new future for all creation. In Christ, Church members share with all humanity the realities of creatureliness, sinfulness, brokenness, and suffering, as well as the future toward which God is drawing them. The mission of God pertains not only to the Church but also to people everywhere and all creation.

Biographies of Composers

This February we celebrate the music of Black local composers of the DMV region.

Duke Ellington (1899–1974) was a visionary composer, virtuoso pianist, and legendary bandleader who redefined the landscape of 20th-century music. Born in Washington, D.C., to middle-class parents who nurtured his artistic talents and sense of dignity, he moved to New York City during the height of the Harlem Renaissance. There, he rose to international fame as the leader of the Duke Ellington Orchestra, famously holding a residency at the Cotton Club where his innovative arrangements transformed the big band into a sophisticated laboratory for musical experimentation.

Despite the pervasive racial segregation of the Jim Crow era, Ellington navigated the entertainment industry with a regal poise that earned him his lifelong nickname, "The Duke." Much like Saint-Georges, his genius was often met with institutional pushback; most notably, the Pulitzer Prize Advisory Board controversially denied him a special citation in 1965, a slight he famously met with the graceful remark, "Fate is being kind to me. Fate doesn't want me to be too famous too young."

A Note on This Morning's Music

Today, as we celebrate Transfiguration Sunday, our sanctuary is filled with the vibrant rhythms of New Orleans. This music serves as our "Alleluia" before we enter the quiet, penitential season of Lent.

The "Second Line" is one of the most uniquely American expressions of community and faith. Rooted in the brass band traditions of New Orleans, the "First Line" traditionally consisted of the grand officers of a club or the funeral brass band. The "Second Line" referred to the crowd—the neighbors, strangers, and passersby—who were swept up in the rhythm, dancing and walking together in a spirit of shared humanity.

In New Orleans, this music is a theology of resilience. It famously moves from the somber, respectful dirge to the explosive, syncopated joy of "cutting the body loose." It reminds us that even in the face of struggle, the Spirit provides a rhythm for joy.

As we prepare for Mardi Gras and the subsequent arrival of Ash Wednesday, this jazz reminds us of the Transfiguration itself: a moment of dazzling, rhythmic light that sustains us for the journey ahead. Whether we are "marching in" or simply swaying in the pews, we are all part of the Second Line today—walking together in the light of Christ.

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR THE WEEK OF
FEBRUARY 15, 2026

Mardi Gras themed Dinner Church
Tuesday, February 17, 2026, 6 p.m.
The February Dinner Church will move to the Tuesday before Lent Begins. This Tuesday, known as Shrove Tuesday, comes for an Old English word "shrive" - to confess one's sins. Cultures around the world observe the beginning of Lent in a variety of ways, including celebrations like Mardi Gras. Since the use of eggs and butter were prohibited for many in Lent, pancake dinners were a way to use up these items before Lent began. The February Dinner church will be a pancake supper, decorated for Mardi Gras, focusing on preparing for Lent. It is an age-inclusive experience, designed to bring everyone—from children to adults—into meaningful worship.

Ash Wednesday - Marking the Beginning of Lent
Wednesday, February 18, 2026, Noon and 7:30 p.m.
Join us as Lewinsville offers two opportunities to mark the beginning of Lent with Ash Wednesday. We will worship in the church sanctuary at Noon and 7:30 p.m. when you will have the opportunity to receive the imposition of ashes. Pastor Jen will be in the Narthex from 5:30 p.m. - 7 p.m. if families with children, for whom a 7:30 p.m. service is too late on a school night, would like to stop by to receive ashes. We invite you to begin your Lent with us in this way. If you have questions, feel free to reach out to Pastors Scott, Layne, or Jen.

Inquirers' Class
Sunday, February 22, 2026, 3- 5 p.m. Room 102a
If you are interested in becoming a member of Lewinsville Presbyterian, or if you would like to know more about our congregation and denomination, come to this one-time session on February 22. Led by Pastor Scott, topics include "Being Presbyterian" "Reformed Faith" and "the Mission and Ministry of Lewinsville Presbyterian Church." At the end of this meeting, you will have an opportunity, but not an obligation, to join the church. Questions: contact Pastors Scott, Layne, or Jen.

ADULT EDUCATION

A Weavers Look at the Bible, taught by Meggie Lineberger
Sunday February 22, 9:30 a.m. Room 102A in-person only
The Bible is full of references to spinning and weaving, which are trades that have disappeared from our twenty-first century consciousness. What does it mean when Job claims that his days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle? Or when Jesus tells his followers to consider the lilies of the field for they do not toil or spin? In this class, we will learn how to process fiber into cloth by using a drop spindle and loom to better understand the world view of the original biblical audience. Class led by Margaret (Meggie) Lineberger, Head Weaver at George Washington's Mount Vernon.

C.S. Lewis' The Screwtape Letters: A Discussion, led by Debbie Leavens
Sunday February 22, 9:30 a.m. Room 102B in-person only
What if faith could be explored through satire, imagination, and a devil's-eye view? In this module, we'll read The Screwtape Letters by C.S. Lewis, using its sharp wit to examine temptation, spiritual growth, and the quiet ways love and justice take shape in everyday life. We'll appreciate Lewis's insights while also questioning and contextualizing them for today's world. Come ready for lively discussion, honest reflection, and a deeper look at how grace works amid complexity. Led by Debbie Leavens. Room 102B. In-person only.

LOOKING AHEAD—ADULT EDUCATION MODULES FOR MARCH

Dr. Elgendy, professor of public theology and ethics at Wesley Seminary, will present a 4-part series on understanding how the suffering, death and resurrection of Jesus relate to our salvation (atonement theories.) He will help us understand how our faith is informed by our understanding of why Jesus' suffering death matters.

Session 1 - Guilt and Grace: The Ambivalence of Shame and Sacrifice in Substitutionary Theories of Atonement
Session 2 - The Way of Love: Reading Moral Exemplarity as God's Being in Act
Session 3 - Powers and Their Downfall: The Victory of the Weak Christ and the Structures of the Cosmos
Session 4 - Partakers of the Divine Nature: Recapitulation, The New Creation, and the Divine Life

Song of Songs
Sundays, March 8-22, 2026, 9:30 a.m.
The Song of Songs is considered part of the wisdom literature of the Old Testament, along with Proverbs, Job and Ecclesiastes. This book of ancient Hebrew love poetry encourages its readers to consider how to live well in a broken world. Join this discussion of a book of the Bible that rarely shows up in sermons or classes.

Getting Your Ducks in a Row: Preparing for the Final Chapter — Sponsored by the Older Adults Council
Sundays, March 8-22, 2026, 9:30 a.m.
This three-week module addresses topics that many wish to avoid—preparing yourself and your family for the end of life. The planning, conversations and decisions are hard. But when preparation occurs before a terminal illness or sudden death, stress, anxiety, and uncertainty are reduced.

Good News from the P Family

The applications for Ukrainian Parole Status for Olga, Sergii, and their three children have been approved by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service, after almost eleven months! The parents are now awaiting receipt of their employment authorization forms so that they can be legally employed. The RRT has committed to financially supporting this family until they are both re-employed and are able to cover their monthly rent and utilities.

All furniture and furnishings donated by the congregation have been received. We are waiting to move the donated furniture and two adult bicycles until the ice and snow melts a bit so that the movers can access furniture iced in church members' basements! The father and son assembled the 9 pieces of furniture we had delivered to the family from Ikea and Wayfair. The teenage son now has an Ikea daybed, so he is no longer sleeping on the floor. The non-furniture donations have all been given to the family. For the first time since their arrival in the United States three years ago, they have table and floor lamps and warm bedding.

Our team is working with the family to facilitate the adults' enrollment in ESL classes, to advise on financial management and income taxes, to assure that the family is re-enrolled in the public benefits for which they qualify, and to assist the adults to secure more professional and better-paying jobs. All of this has been possible because of the amazing generosity of this congregation. Your financial donations to cover their rent, utilities, food, and essential expenses are still needed! Many, many thanks.

"To Be Made Well"* New Online Small Group during Lent:
Mondays February 23, March 9, 16, 23 and 30 from 7:30 - 8:30 p.m.
From hurting bodies and souls to hurting relationships and communities, it's clear that things are not as they should be. The gospels brim with stories of Jesus healing people, but what does that mean for us today? This Lenten online group will discuss To Be Made Well by Amy Julia Becker. Amy Julia weaves together her own story with reflections on biblical accounts of Jesus' healing work. This book is a powerful invitation to personal, spiritual, and social healing as we reconnect to our bodies and souls, to God, and to our communities. For anyone struggling with pain or loss, for anyone concerned about the things that divide us, this book goes beyond wellness and beyond miraculous physical transformations to explore how we can—personally and collectively—be made well. Books can be purchased online or picked up in the church office for a suggested donation of $10. Pastor Jen, who was friends with Amy Julia in her 20s, will lead the online group. Check the Thursday update or email Pastor Jen for the Zoom Link.
